To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to recommend Jeff Hartman as an actor and singer, as well as general entertainer. I have had the pleasure of working with Jeff on a number of productions, most notably Oliver! about ten years ago and later as Narrator/El Gallo in a production of The Fantasticks. Currently he is performing the featured role of Bob Westchester in The Streets of Hickory, an original musical which I created specifically for Hickory Community Theatre in Hickory, NC.

Jeff is a joy to work with. He is punctual, he takes direction well and brings almost no ego with him into rehearsals. He delivers what is called for at all times and has never complained or disagreed with anything I have given him to do. He is a fine actor and an equally fine singer. He demonstrates an excellent command of presence, focus and concentration. I can state unequivocally that there is no one I would rather collaborate with on a production at any time than Jeff Hartman and it gives me great pleasure to recommend him to you at this time.

Sincerely,

John Coffey
